Our guarantee—We guarantee every plant put out to be true to name and color, and also to be in growing condition when received.

Substitution—We never substitute unless asked to do so, in the order, but would suggest naming a few varieties as second choice.

Name and Address—Be sure to write name and address very plainly.

Prices quoted are for field grown divided tuberous dahlia roots.

The American Dahlia Society has established a new classification as follows:

Formal Decorative (D.)—Double flowers, broad flat petals, full center, regular in arrangement.

Informal Decorative (I. D.)—Double flowers, long twisted petals and irregular arrangement.

Semi Cactus (S. C.)—Formerly listed as Hybrid Cactus.

Straight and Recurved Cactus (C.).

Ball (B.)—Quilled or Double Dahlias.

Peony (P.)—Open centered flowers.

NEW INTRODUCTIONS FOR 1936

Mary Singleton, F. D. (Andersen)—A beautiful dahlia and one which has been greatly admired in our garden. Large full flower of a bright rose color with silvery reverse. Free flowering on good stems. One of the best.—$10.00.

Celia Sawyer, F. D. (Andersen)—Brightest light flame with a gold suffusion. Immense flower on long wiry stems. A good keeper as a cut flower—$10.00

Mrs. Emily Muller, I. D. (Andersen)—The color of this dahlia is most beautiful shade of golden apricot. The blossoms are held upright on long stout stems—$5.00.

Pacific Golden Queen, S. C. (Andersen)—An extremely good flower. Pure old gold in color. This is one of the most attractive dahlias that we have ever grown. The flowers are perfect and large with the best of stems on low growing bushes—$10.00.

Mrs. Elizabeth Parrett, I. D. (Andersen)—I regard this as one of the most beautiful decorative dahlias; the flowers are large, held above the foliage on fine stems, and the coloring is unsurpassed, a deep orange. This seedling was one out of 50 varieties that took first prize at the State Fair, 1934—$7.50.

GENERAL LIST OF DAHLIAS

Achievement, I. D.—Gold with bronze shadings. Magnificent dahlia of immense size and perfect form—$1.50.

Al Koran, D.—Yellow suffused with gold and amber. The petals are wavy and make the flower quite attractive. Long, stiff stem—50c.

Alex Craig, C.—A Canadian beauty of exquisite loveliness, being a combination of pink and cream. Outer petals are pink and center cream. Blooms are of good size and practically same form as Oriental Beauty. Extra fine—$1.50.

Caprice, F. D.—Golden yellow, shading to pink—$1.50.

California Sunshine, D.—Brightest light flame, with a gold suffusion. The very best dahlia we know, in these colorings. It is a good strong grower—75c.

Cherry, C.—A rich crimson shaded maroon, full centered on strong stems and a prolific bloomer—50c.

California Enchantress, S. C.—An enormous bloom of pale pink, on long stiff stem. Splendid cut flower—75c.

Clarissa Blanco, D.—The color is deep claret wine, sometimes marked white—75c.

C. M. Stegman, C.—This is a very unusual dahlia on account of its red stems and colored foliage. The color of the bloom is a rich maroon, a prolific bloomer—$1.00.

Celestial, F. D.—A top-of-the-stem dahlia full of high class flowers. Color is lilac, with deep purple reverse. Center of blossom is dark. Flowers glisten with a silvery sheen in the sunshine—$1.50.

Clare Clemens (Ball)—Deep red, each petal tipped white—$1.00.

Color Sergeant, D.—Rich, deep salmon bronze flowers of large size. Perfect stems and clean—75c.

Coquette, D.—This new decorative is a 1929 introduction of strong growing habits and the dark leathery foliage which is so much desired because of insect resisting property. The flower is a giant of red and gold—$1.00.

Conquistador, S. C.—Soft creamy yellow shading to pink. Strong thrifty grower—75c.

Dwight W. Morrow, I. D.—Gigantic dahlia of the most gorgeous shade of red. Freely produced and always admired—$1.50.

Eagle Rock Fantasy, I. D.—Beautiful lavender pink. Immense size, splendid stems and vigorous growth. A prize winner everywhere and highly recommended—$1.50.

Elite Glory, D.—Immense flower, brilliant rich red, without any purple or maroon shading. Blooms and foliage gigantic in size. Good keeper—75c.

Edna Ferber, S. C.—Color a glistening coral, shading to old gold at the base of petals. Petals curled and twisted, making a very full flower—75c.

Ellinor Vanderveer, D.—An incomparable dahlia of exquisite beauty and great size, having every desirable quality—50c.

Fort Monmouth, S. C.—Rich, crimson maroon on long, stiff stems high above strong bushes. Very large and attractive—$1.00.

Full Moon, F.—Canary yellow. Twelve-inch blooms are the rule with this one. Introduced in 1932. An Honor Roll dahlia. The blooms are regularly formed of very broad, flat petals that terminate in a perfect center—$2.00.

Francesca, I. D.—An immense blossom with long narrow wavy petals. The color is rose heavily suffused with gold towards the center and with violet at the tips—75c.

Frank Miller, F. D.—An especially fine dahlia of clear lemon yellow. Giant size and beautiful formation. Sturdy long stems—$1.00.

Girl of Hillcrest—You will derive a great deal of pleasure from growing this excellent variety as it blooms early and continuously with flowers always well formed. It is suitable for exhibition whether it is the first or last show. Color is apricot buff or cadmium orange—$1.50.

Golden Opportunity, B.—Buttercup yellow, orange to center. One of the best—50c.
